

January 1942

2

9 Blowing a strong cold West Wind Fred went for a load of Sledges
3 more U.S. Plains Arrived

10 Very Mild this Morning Blowing a strong West Wind Thawing towards Noon
I drove over and got the mail

11 Blowing a strong chinook Wind the snow going fast 2 trucks passed here with freight for Ft Nelson

Source: British Columbia Archives

Call Number: MS-749 Box: 4

File: 25

For research or private study use only FRANK BEATON

12 Fred could not cross the River on account of bad ice, they came back this evening

13 Continues very mild a lot of snow gone

14 Fred went away this morning they may be able to cross the River this morning as it was head during the night

15 Continues fine warm weather Fred called Ransom to saw fire wood I was this afternoon at job blowing a strong dust storm to night and a little colder

16 A fine clear ^{day} and very mild Fred went over to see the horses at R24.9 U.S. Plains arrived at this airport and stayed for the night

17 continues fine mild weather Fred took the team to town and got them and had them to town and got the mail afternoon in the road all day the U.S. Plains left for Alaska