

November, 1947

- Wed 4 Snowing during the night fell about 1/2 in. of snow. This morning but cleared before noon.
- Thu 5 Cold and stormy snowed a little during the night. I and Lillian hauled a load of firewood from Zero to Right.
- Fri 6 12 Below but clear and no wind. Went towards house but too cold towards evening. Snowed a little.
- Sat 7 9 Below this morning and a fine clear day. We drove to town this evening. Mild to night.
- Sun 8 Very mild. Started to blow a strong west wind. Duncan and Angus arrived.
- Mon 9 Very mild. Blowing a strong west wind and thinning a little towards evening.
- Tue 10 Blowing a strong chinook wind all day. Melted the snow from
- Wed 11 Still blowing from the west but less. Very warm. Lillian went to the city and is staying there. My was married.
- Thu 12 Coldest very mild. Very sick. I had the doctor to come and see him.
- Fri 13 Blowing a strong S.W. wind cloudy to night and started to rain.
- Sat 14 Started to snow early this morning. Wind from North.
- Sun 15 Blowing a strong North wind with snow all day and very cold. Duncan ^{drove} over to Mikkilone place and got back late to night along with Margaret who came to see her. Newton who is very sick.