

2

October 1943

- Fri 15 Cold and very cloudy cleared up towards noon blowing S.W. wind
- Sat 16 Cold and clear this morning. Blowing a strong East wind we drove to town in the afternoon clear and cold to night
- Sun 17 Cloudy and overcast rained for a short time John got the team and went over to Birley's, cold all day
- Mon 18 Rained during the night and snowed this morning and a cold East wind
- Tue 19 A heavy mist this morning cold and wet cleared towards noon
- Wed 20 Cloudy and cold I drove to town this morning. Duncan came over this evening and camped
- Thurs 21 Cold and overcast snowed a little but cleared up towards noon
- Fri 22 Cold Blowing a cold North wind Fred busy mending the house and barn cold all day
- Sat 23 We all drove to town and went to the funeral of Mrs R Ferguson at the R.C. Church. She was an old friend of ours and passed away. A few days ago very cloudy this evening and started to snow blowing a North East wind and very cold
- Sun 24 Snowed a little during the night Blowing a cold N.E. Wind this morning and cloudy then and started to snow this evening

October 1

- Mon 25 Snowed during this morning
- Tue 26 Cold and clear looks like a
- Wed 27 A fine clear busy Banking
- Thurs 28 Cloudy this morning about 10 a.m. towards evening
- Fri 29 A fine clear morning
- Sat 30 Cold this morning we drove over Blowing a cold
- Sun 31 Cold and clear

November

- Mon 1 Cold and cloudy East clear
- Tue 2 Blowing a strong clear and cold
- Wed 3 Cloudy this morning Blowing a strong
- Thurs 4 A fine clear the Buildings this evening