

16

March 1944

Tue 24 13 Below this morning Blowing a west wind. A fine mild day

Sat 25 4 Below this morning but a fine clear day. We drove over to town after dinner

Sun 26 12 Below this morning Blowing a cold north wind

Mon 27 A fine clear morning. I drove over to Duncan this morning. Very mild. Thawing towards evening

Tue 28 Frost last night. Blowing a south wind. Duncan took a load of lumber

Wed 29 Blowing a strong chinook wind. The snow going fast

Thur 30 Still blowing a strong west wind. Duncan took a load of lumber

Fri 31 Snow nearly all gone. Blowing a strong S.W. wind this morning

April

Sat 1 Blowing a morning

Sun 2 Wind from

Mon 3 A fine clear day. Strong N

Tue 4 Blowing a and overcast

Wed 5 Started to snow

Thur 6 A hard frost. Clear day

Fri 7 Good Friday. Thick snow cutting fast

Sat 8 A hard frost day. We drove to Harbourside. Stayed at

Sun 9 A fine clear day. Wind we are

Tue 11 fine spring