

28

July 1944

Wed 12 A fine, clear morning Blowing a strong West wind very hot in the afternoon

Thu 13 A fine, warm day Blowing a strong West Wind Sports at Taylor's flat to day

Fri 14 Weather fine I was busy in the garden a few light showers this evening

Sat 15 A few showers this morning I drove over to town Blowing a strong West Wind

Sun 16 Blowing a strong West Wind

Mon 17 A fine clear morning I was busy in the Garden Very hot all day

Tue 18 Weather fine, and very hot A heavy thunder storm this evening and rain

Wed 19 The Berkeys got a letter reporting the death of their son Harold in France A fine clear day Very hot

Thurs 20 A report that P. Bruce has murdered his wife at the town of St John

Thu 20 A fine clear morning, very hot in afternoon

Fri 21 A fine clear morning and very hot All day, cloudy, heavily raining

Sat 22 I drove over to town this morning and then I drove over to Sundara A number of men along the road looking for Phil Trench

July

Sun 23 A fine clear a strong West

Mon 24 Cloudy and Cleared up to

Tue 25 a fine clear mo and very hot

Wed 26 Weather fine

Thu 27 Another hot towards am

Fri 28 Cloudy and

Sat 29 Started to Rain about noon
A few showers

Sun 30 A fine clear

Mon 31 A heavy fog