

1918

Tuesday 12 March

Cold this morning but fine towards noon and looks like fine weather Self & Johny thrashing oats beaze at wood

Wednesday 13

a fine clear day self at odd jobs beaze went for a load of oats The Macdonnell boys arrived & is utras along with them they left their freight part of the freight at the cut Bank River and will go back for it tomorrow

Thursday 14

continues fine blowing a strong chill wind self thrashing oats beaze at wood

Friday 15

continues warm self at odd jobs the settling feet

Saturday 16

continues mild but cloudy towards evening self at odd jobs The Macdonnell boys got back with their loads Coalbrook arrived from Halpury River

Sunday 17

The Macdonnell left their horses for Hope Thawing all day

Monday 18

cold & stormy with snow all day very little doing

Tuesday 19

continues cold & stormy with snow self at odd jobs very little doing