

April

Friday 5 1918

A regular snow storm this morning and continued most of the day. Self in office. The mail got in the mail carrier took his team through the ice but he managed to save the mail a lot of people around.

Saturday 6

Cold this morning but milder later on but very little snow. The mail left this a.m. Self cleaning up the store.

Sunday 7

A fine mild day we all went up to the Promontory for dinner.

Monday 8 April
a fine mild day self made a pair of whipper trees the snow going fast. Cloudy towards evening and looks like rain or snow.

Tuesday 9

A fine clear day but stormy towards evening the ice getting bad.

Wednesday 10

A fine clear day self at oil jobs the boys cleaning up around the place.

Thursday 11

A fine clear day Mr. Bailey & family left for their Province today self at oil jobs cleaning up around the place. The getting well around from the 8 Pine. Beese seen today on the south side of the river.