

December 1930

^{Sat 27}
a very fine day blowing a strong west wind, all day. I went up to the Police Barracks after dinner very few people around

Sunday 28

a very fine day Brennan's teams got back from Big Creek

Monday 29

still blowing a warm west wind it looks like spray weather I went up to Miller for dinner and then I went to Thorsens.
The River is froze over but the ice is not strong. and the River ran about 6 to 8 ft during the past week on account of the warm wind

Tuesday 30

weather ^{very} but cloudy and overcast looks like snow. the wind N. W.
I was busy at odd jobs all day the River went down a little

Wednesday 31

the last day of the year. I went up to the H B store this morning I found Mr Milvin the Inspector he arrived here on Monday evening as Mr Seguen is away to Big Creek I expect Mr Milvin will wait for him. I went up to Miller place this evening a dance at Thorsens this evening so ends the old year and I must say it has been the finest winter I have seen in this country
