

April 1935

Tuesday 16

A fine warm day started
A strong West Wind this Morning and continued all day the snow melting fast Duncan went to Worthing for his horse

Wednesday 17

Continued fine still blowing a warm West wind the snow going fast the settlers being hardly concerned to rail from Chark. Late but the roads are getting level

Thursday 18

Continued fine snow going fast cloudy towards evening a few showers this evening Duncan went to bars after some horses this morning

Friday 19

Good Friday a general holiday the Boys + Duncan cleared some wheat and took it to the mill still very warm the snow going fast. cold to night a hard frost Peg Taylor got badly hurt in the bank today