

October 1935

Friday 4

A fine clear day. I was busy at fire wood and other jobs. Frank's still at Berly's the people around here are all busy thrashing.

Saturday 5

Weather fine. I went for a walk after dinner. Frank's got back from Berly's they finished thrashing.

Sunday 6

I drove down to the River. It's raining and I got back about 4:30. Cloudy towards evening.

Monday 7

Cloudy and cold. Frank helped Angus to start. I drove over to the P.O. with some mail. Very cloudy blowing a ~~strong~~ ^{very} breeze eastwards and started to snow about 6 this evening and very cold.

Tuesday 8

Cloudy and cold. Full moon. Snow last night. Wind from north. Thawed a little.
