

October 1935

Thursday 24th
 fine this morning but cloudy I drove over and got the mail started to rain about 10 o'clock and continued nearly all day cleared up about 4 o'clock but clouded up again to night

Friday 25th
 Blowing a cold East wind it rained nearly all last night I & Bramble mudded the house cold towards evening a dance to night at Chl Lake

Saturday 26th
 Snowing this morning south side winter is near cleared towards ^{evening} but cold all day I cut some firewood in the bush
 No mail

Sunday 27th
 Cold all day the mail got in at noon

Monday 28th
 12 below this morning cold all day
 I went over and got the mail
 I also went to the Hospital to see Margaret she had a Daughter a few days ago. Bramble mudded the house
