

November 1935

Saturday 16

Snowing again today Frank busy hauling firewood. I drove over to the H B store for a visit no mail report that the Peris chamed at Exeter that cleared up this evening and very mild

Sunday 17

a fine clear day but cold

Monday 18

10 below this morning but fine all day
 I drove to the Poppo with some mail I then went to the H B and had dinner. Frank called 3 local wood very mild tonight being a strong west wind. no mail

Tuesday 19

A fine mild day. I drove over and got the mail. being a strong west wind this evening and looks like a thaw Frank to a load of steers down to Mead.

Wednesday 20

A fine clear day though a little blowing a strong west wind I drove over to the H B after dinner for a few supplies. Mable very sick. I sent Frank for the doctor this evening
