

February 1936

Wednesday 26

50 below this morning I drove over and got the mail. Frank went for the doctor for Mable but he would not come as he said he could do nothing for her I sent Frank over to her place to stay with them for the night. Clouds up toward evening and started to snow and wind mild.

Thursday 27

+ 30 below but fine and mild all day. Frank drove Mable over to the Hospital this morning. I was busy at Wood. only 20 below to night.

Friday 28

Cold and stormy this morning with snow but cleared up before noon. I drove over to the I.B. store in afternoon. Very mild to night 10 below 2 in.

Saturday 29

A fine clear day and Santa to blow a strong west wind and started to thaw and still blowing at bed time. Frank got the mail.
