October 1936

Saturday 17
Continues fine weather but still blowing a strong West Wind I drove over and got the mail and I also drove to the P.O. Hard Wind shifted to North this evening and turned cold

Sunday 18
Blowing a cold North Wind with a light fall of snow Mrs Birby came over with Phil ion and took us over to his place for dinner we also saw the fine home movies cold this evening

Monday 19
Finger hard last night and blowing a cold North Wind but fine Roads worse than ever plowing I drove over with Dorothy Hazel after dinning to the Post Office Cloudy this evening

Tuesday 20
Cold last night and cold all day Frank plowing I was living at Jules Barys cold this evening Glass at Zero
