

June 1938

Tuesday 7

Cloudy and lots of smoke all day I drove up to town I also went to see W.A. Mahaffy who is sick in the hospital.
I was planting some cabbages
this evening the boys
got birds from setting
this evening.

Wednesday 8

Rained heavy early this morning the first rain this summer.
I drove over and got the mail rather cold all day had a visit from Bill Gardner he is leaving tomorrow morning.

Thursday 9

Kings Birth Day a fine clear day Frank cutting brush Fred cut up fire wood
I planted some cabbages this evening the mail plain and and took the mail out.

Friday 10

A fine warm day the mail arrived Fred went over and got it. Frank cutting brush Fred at fire wood a dance at town to night.
